

Cape Fear Shag Club Meeting February 13, 2016

Mission: To bring together individuals who love the shag dance and its music, and who want to preserve, promote, and share the shag experience with others.

The meeting was called to order by President Keith Thompson. New members to be voted on, were announced, motion to accept them was made by Karen Newman, 2nd by Rick Parish. Vote taken, new members accepted.

The minutes from the last meeting were stated to be on the website, and any questions could be made to any board member.

The treasurer's report also is on the website, we have approximately $9700.00.

Old Business:

1. The board is working on a number of projects:
  - a. Bylaw changes: 1. Moving reup party to November. 2. Allowing the board to vote in new members, rather than having the membership do so. 3. Allowing business meetings to be quarterly. We need a 2/3 membership vote to create these change.
2. Keith stated he had met with the Shrine Club and requested a 2 year contract; they will meet later in the month and let Keith know the results.
3. Don Sykes still has 18 SOS tickets for $30. Deadline is soon.
4. Sam West will be at our June meeting; he will do a lesson as before and will DJ for the club meeting. We look forward to this activity and hope all will come out and take part.
5. Donnie Davis is working on the Junior Shaggers coming to do an exhibition for the club.in May.
6. The Low Tide Run will be March 12, and we hope the club will come out and join our group, Shaggers for a Cure, as we support the fight against cancer.
7. Maggie Landreth is taking requests tonight for women's shag club logo t-shirts at $18 each.

New Business:

1. Phil Turner , President of Causeway Shag Club, spoke requesting the Cape Fear Shag Club come and join them at their Feb. 27, 2016 meeting between 7:30-11:30PM. The cost is $5.00 and the DJ will be Walter Scott. Also, they have free shag lesson on Tuesday nights.

Birthdays of the Month:

Birthdays were announced, and the birthday dance was done after the closing of the meeting. Eddie Baker, Lloyd Bowden, Kathy Jordan, Betty Rowe.

Meeting closed with a motion by Maggie Landreth and 2nd by Paul Bender. Keith Thompson announced the meeting closed and hoped everyone would enjoy the Valentine Dance.
