

Cape Fear Shag Club Meeting

November 11, 2017

Re-Up Party with Country Western Theme Pig Pickin

Mission: To bring together individuals who love the shag dance and its music, and who want to preserve, promote, and share the shag experience with others.

The meeting was held at the Wilmington Shrine Club.

The meeting was called to order by Bernie Braak, club president, welcomed everyone and recognized the Veterans in attendance by asking them to stand as it was Veterans Day. Then all joined in and stood while the Star Spangled Banner was played.

The minutes from the last meeting were stated to be on the website, and any questions could be made to any board member.

The treasurer's report

Old Business:

1. The slate of officers for 2018 was presented for voting as follows:

President: Bernie Braak

Vice President: Yogi Wilson

Secretary: Donnie Davis

Treasurer: Maggie Landreth

Sergeant at Arms: Bob Droysen

Members at Large: Keith Thompson and Linda Gordon

There being a quorum, vote was unanimous for the slate.

2. Bernie discussed the Christmas Party to be held December 15, 2017 on Friday night at 7:00 pm. He read the menu and the cost, tickets are available for purchase:

$20 annual members

$30 regular members

$35 guests

3. SOS cards for 2018 are available for purchase $30 for members of CFSC.
4. Bernie offered sentiments of Pam Cremona and how he met her and how she joined the CFSC. She was a working member of the board for a number of years. He presented a plaque to be placed in her honor at Old Saltys (as she always attended and sat in the same spot by the DJ booth). All observed a “moment of silence” in honor of Pam.
5. Linda Meyer has placed on the CFSC website the Calendar for 2018, with all meeting dates, copies were available at the entrance table or you can print it from the website.
6. Eddie Baker introduced the DJ for the evening: Terry McPhail.
7. Bernie announced the November birthdays, with birthday dance following the close of the meeting.
