Let's try to keep the excitement from SOS going with our dance THIS FRIDAY !!! I have returned from the Presidents' meeting with Fun Monday tickets for Fall Migration in September. So step right up! It will be here before you know it!

Our super Social Committee has planned a Western theme for this month's party, so (if you want to) come in your best imitation of John Wayne, Clint Eastwood, Calamity Jane, or Annie Oakley or . . . we'll see who can dance in those cowboy boots. To add to the fun, we will have as our special guests the Beaches and Boots line dance team. You won't want to miss this!

Our DJ spinning the tunes is another from the Hall of Fame (2007), John Smith from Andrews, South Carolina.

Finally, the Club has been asked to demonstrate the Shag at the New Hanover Hospital "Beach BBQ" being held for their employees on May 13. We have a few "volunteers" already, but if anyone else would like to participate, just let me or any Board member know.

NEWS FOR MAY

Congratulations to Crockett Henderson, currently a student at UNCW, for winning the Rookies' Revenge SOS contest at OD Arcade in North Myrtle Beach last Tuesday! Most everyone knows Crockett, as he has danced with us at The Vault, GIO Fund, and Shagging on Sundays at the Legion and recently danced with us at our club meeting. In the spirit of encouraging young shaggers, we took up a collection and gave him two SOS cards and gas money so he and a friend could attend SOS . . . and WOW, did he make us proud! You can see more pictures and a video of Crockett dancing in the competition on the Wilmington Shaggers Facebook page.
