The weather was perfect for SOS. Hopefully, everyone had an awesome time and had an uneventful trip back home. I return from the Presidents' meeting with a $200 check from ACSC for our club and with the 2026 SOS cards.

Our October party on Friday, October 10, will have a Halloween theme! So if you're in the mood, go for it and try to scare the daylights out of your fellow shaggers. We will have a costume contest!

Remember that we will be presenting the slate of officers for next year. So let's have a good turnout. We will vote at the November re-up meeting. Speaking of which, the new 2026 applications will soon be on our website, capefearshagclub.org. I would again urge everyone to consider being a "one check" annual member as this helps so much with the budget.

Also, this month we will be auctioning off the painting of the Carolina Beach shag mural that was displayed at the August dance. There is only one!

The DJ spinning the tunes at our October meeting will be Jerry Burrage from North Myrtle Beach. He has played for us every year for at least 10 years and is a member of the DJ Hall of Fame!

Everything in the universe has a rhythm.
Everything dances!
