NEWS FOR MARCH

Valentine's Day dance went great, and I think everyone had fun—-especially having their photos taken in the "frame". Our next party is again on Friday the 13th at Beau Rivage with a (what else) St Patrick's Day theme. Make the scene in green! Doors open at 6:30 with a new dance step by Mona Baker and Phyllis Pike.

We are now up to 83 members, which is fantastic, but we still need more people if we want to stay at our current activity level. So, keep recruiting!

As usual, there will not be an April dance due to SOS. This year's dates are April17-26. We still have SOS cards. The Club does not have a plan for the Parade, but if anyone would like to head up a project, let us know.

Our DJ will be Jerry Hill from Mt. Olive. He has been a DJ for 46 years and has played for many radio stations as well as multiple clubs. Another member of the Hall of Fame! This will be his first time playing for us. Let's make him feel welcome !

"Beach Music is a participatory sport. It's not passive. It's not TV. Go out there and shag dance and have fun"
